Looking for a little Mystery this Halloween?

Join us for an evening of Mystery, Adventure & Suspense and see if you can figure out Whodunit?

On February 20, 1921, at 9:15 pm, Anchorage's first Police Chief John J. "Black Jack" Sturgis was found shot in the back with a bullet from his own gun, steps away from the Historic Anchorage Hotel. It is rumored that his ghost returns to the scene of the crime each year, haunting the location of his untimely death, seeking justice for a crime still unsolved to this day!

Join us at the Historic Anchorage Hotel for an overnight adventure of fun and mystery. Become a part of the mystery as you wine and dine with the famous and infamous characters of a much younger Anchorage, and see the surprises that await an observant sleuth.

Only $239 per couple, (includes room for 2, evening appetizers/light meal, cash bar, and breakfast the following morning) or $269.00 for a Suite.
